Deacon Osgood Perry has so far recovered from his injury as to be able to ride to the village Saturday.

Money saved and health obtained by taking the "C. F." Atwood Medicine. Always bears red trade mark "C. F."

The Norway Grange propose to celebrate the 4th with a Harvest Feast in the Grange Hall, commencing at 10 o'clock, a. m.

Veterans who inherit the spirit '76 and '61 will be expected to appear in the parade on the 4th.

If any one gets dry the 4th, there is nothing quite up to Ingalls' Ale for a hot day. Abbott has it, with lemonade and cold drinks.

L. L. Howard claims championship on early peas this season. He claims to have planted not earlier than usual, yet dried off in a picked from his vines on the 25th ult.

John F. Allen has in stock more than fifty different styles of ladies' shoes, boots, slippers and everything, so that one can hardly call for anything he has not got in the line of boots and shoes.

These things that are growing around nights cutting up and acting so cunning, will get caught at it by and by, and then they may have a chance to get sober and it may not seem quite so cunning then.

S. A. Stevens has shown us a map of the first settled part of Norway, giving the original trails, the first roads and the first settlements and the names and date of the same, all of which will be very valuable as matter for the coming history of the town.

Big fish stories are now in order. We hear of parties who have been feeding the Bass upon frogs the past month in certain localities on the pond, for the purpose of a big haul and a big yarn to relate the first day of the campaign.

At the election of officers of the Norway Reform Club the last Thursday in June, the following persons were elected for the next term: E. J. Brown, President; S. J. Brown, Vice Pres., Dennis Pike, 2d Vice Pres., J. A. Brown, Financial Secretary; Chas. Calf, Recording Secretary; E. H. Brown, Treasurer.

The Rev. Chas. F. Piper, formerly of Pittsfield, N. H., but now of Wakefield, R. I., writes: "My wife had been an invalid for years, but Dexter's Mandrake Bitters cured her." N. H. Dunes Vegetable Balm, Elixir, always cures coughs, colds and consumption, when taken in season. Henry & Johnson's Anemia and Oil Liniment for strains, bruises, cuts, swellings, old sores, etc., is excellent.

Little Della Blanche Weston came running to her mamma one day saying, "Oh, mamma, do come out and see what I have found. I never saw anything like it before." On being asked if it moved she said "no, but it looks just like soap." Upon which she seized the dustpan and ran to bring the curiosity. She returned with quite a large mud turtle which she placed upon the piazza in great triumph. When told it would bite terribly she held her foot to it, and the old biting thing way off, which he accordingly did.

Saturday last about 9 o'clock, a. m., while Miss Anna Kinsley and Miss Julia Bates of Westport, were driving down the Old Hill on Pleasant St. Miss Bates was taken suddenly faint and before any assistance could be rendered she fell to the ground. Mr. Gurney who was at work in the yard saw the trouble and immediately went to her assistance. She was taken up in an unconscious state and carried to Mr. Gurney's house, and Miss Kinsley, for the Dr. She soon recovered consciousness and it was thought she was not seriously injured.

Rousing temperance meeting at Cozart Hall last Sunday. After the introductory remarks by the President, short speeches were made by the President elect, E. H. Brown, Elder Saml. D. Damon of Poland, David Knapp, esq., J. F. Devine, J. P. Brown, C. F. Riddle and Rev. Mr. Pillsbury. The singing of "Friends We Come with Hearts of Gladness," and "Drifting with the Tide" by the quartette, composed of Mrs. Ida Kimball soprano, Mrs. Cora F. Pike contralto, Mr. Doten, tenor and Mr. E. N. Clement bass with Miss Elsie Clement violin and the organ, was very fine and called out much applause. The quartette is composed of excellent singers and they draw a crowd whenever they will sing. The splendid recitation entitled "Clop and Think" by Miss Estelle Crook and rendered in her best manner and it was received by the audience with much satisfaction and applause. Miss Crook is one of the best elocutionists in this vicinity. Next Sunday afternoon the temperance meeting will be held at the Methodist church.

The New York Dramatic Company closed a week of brilliant successes Saturday night with the production of the Sea of Ice. Friday night they were repaid by request by the company, one of the finest performances ever put on the boards of a country theatre. Galatea was represented by Miss Mollen in a manner indicative of careful study and thorough familiarity with details. Cynisca was finely interpreted by Miss Bennett, and the scene in the second act where she calls down the vengeance of the gods on her reprobate husband Pnygmon is exceptionally well rendered. Mr. Campbell as Pnygmon made an excellent appearance. His conception of the part is good and his attitudes well chosen and effective. All the minor parts are well taken. Such a company is seldom seen outside the cities; their plays are the latest successes and well rendered, the costumes elaborate, and all the members good actors. The company is now in N. H. They will play at Graham the 3d, 4th and 5th, Berlin Mills the 7th and 8th, Berlin Mills the 9th and 10th, Lancaster the 11th and 12th, Littleton 14th to 19th. Dr. Young is to preside over the business department of W. S. Abbott's store on the 4th. Any one wishing a view of the Doctor's genial countenance should drop in and see him smile.

S. S. Smith has left on our table a box of strawberries which would be hard to beat. Mr. S. is one of the few who succeeds in cultivating the strawberry so as to produce perfect fruit, like the specimen before us.

Little Edie Cummings exhibited the finest string of bass we have seen brought into the village. He had one monster which he said was all he could do to get it out of the water, and we thought it was about right.

Bennett says that possibly his steak and his horses may need some pounding but he thinks the editor of the ADVERTISER needs it more, and he will see what can be done about the burying, and it comes in town. Evidently Bennett means to give him a warm reception.

If you want to keep cool and enjoy life the 4th of July, go to Jack Elliott's store on the 4th of July and buy a pair of his thin suits which he has for a mere song, drop into Sam's and get a glass of pure soda, and kick the first mud turtle you see, and you will be all right.

A little girl, some seven or eight years old, in company with her parents went to see the old woodcock store, Saturday evening. It being the first time she ever witnessed a theatrical play, her nerves were somewhat agitated by the true scenes which were displayed that evening. After submitting to various efforts to quiet her frame of mind (on her return home), she exclaimed: "What will they do about the burying, mother?" They killed two men and Norway has but one hearse.

Any person who is foolish enough to live this hot weather without an oil stove in the house, should call a physician and have their head examined, lest there be some trouble with the brain. There are two good reasons why a man should take this matter in hand. First, the expense of fuel; second, the comfort of eating cooked food without being cooked yourself. If you love your wife get an oil stove. If spending for a family keep the old woodcock store humming. Chas. Mason will tell the rest of the story.

The committee on apportionment of representatives agreed upon the following: Norway, first and fourth, Hebron, second, Oxford third.

Mr. Edmore—There is being considerable controversy about the squiring controversy, but there is one thing that has not been made clear yet, and which is very necessary in order to prove a thing against the fact. If any one can show how a person can go around part of a thing and not the whole, keep the old woodcock store humming. Chas. Mason will tell the rest of the story.
